Mr. O.C. Bosbyshell
Superintendent Mint of the U.S.

Yours of 12th came duly to hand.

A Dealer in Coins in this city told me he had been presented with an Assay medal – and advised me to write as I did. Not being among the favored few – I applied to a dealer and this morning are in possession of Two-one each silver & copper – which no doubt “got astray”.

Yours truly,
John F. McCoy
